

SEPTEMBER 11TH FAMILIES FOR PEACEFUL TOMORROWS PRESENTS

20 YEARS LATER

A PEACE AND JUSTICE FILM FESTIVAL

20 Years Later is a virtual film festival commemorating the 20th anniversary of September 11, centering on the theme of peace and justice. Featuring films across 20 years, including brand new releases, each film is paired with a live panel featuring producers, directors, 9/11 family members, and/or subjects of the film, open to audience questions. The festival is run by September Eleventh Families for Peaceful Tomorrows, a nonprofit organized by relatives of the victims of the September 11th attacks.

FEATURED FILMS:

In Our Son's Name

The Mauritanian

We Are Many

Finding Our Voices

No Responders Left Behind

The Outsider

SEPTEMBER 7-12

For featured films, schedules, and tickets, visit:

watch.eventive.org/20yearslater

SEPTEMBER 11TH FAMILIES FOR PEACEFUL TOMORROWS

20 YEARS LATER

A PEACE AND JUSTICE FILM FESTIVAL

SCHEDULE

In Our Son's Name Sept. 7th - 12th

An portrait of Phyllis and Orlando Rodríguez, whose son, Greg, dies on September 11, 2001. The bereaved parents choose reconciliation and nonviolence over vengeance.

Live Panel on Sept. 9th will feature the maker and subjects of the film.

No Responders Left Behind Sept. 7th, 8th

This film follows 9/11 social activists Jon Stewart and John Feal as they take on the U.S. government to ensure Health and Compensation for thousands of ailing First Responders dying from Ground Zero toxins.

Live Panel on Sept. 7th will feature the director and a subject of the film.

We Are Many Sept. 7th, 8th, 9th

This fearless, thought-provoking documentary details the remarkable story behind the first ever global demonstration in protest of the Iraq War, featuring organizers, activists, celebrities, and politicians.

Live Panel on Sept. 8th featuring a discussion with the director of the film.

The Mauritanian Sept. 10th, 11th, 12th

Mohamedou Ould Slahi fights for freedom after being detained and imprisoned without charge by the U.S. government for years.

Live Panel on Sept. 10th will feature a discussion and Q&A with former Guantanamo inmate, Mohamedou Slahi, and 9/11 families.

The Outsider Sept. 10th, 11th, 12th

A film following the Creative Director of the National 9/11 Memorial & Museum as he confronts a narrow and simplistic narrative of 9/11.

Live Panel on Sept. 10th will feature a discussion with the co-directors of the film and a 9/11 family member.

Finding Our Voices Sept. 11th, 12th

This movie highlights the passion and determination of American citizens who sacrifice their jobs and their retirement, and risk imprisonment in their democratic dissent of the Iraq war.

Live Panel on Sept. 12th featuring a discussion with the production team.

watch.eventive.org/20yearslater